

Properties

Window handle

lockable, For windows with the tilt before turn function, Model 162XP made of stainless steel round tube in mitre cut (1.4301), Matt jet black, powder-coated, Diameter 21.3 mm, 135 mm long, with 1.5 mm wall thickness, with 90 degree locking points and 7 mm square spindle, length protrudes by 30 mm (other lengths and 45 degree latching on request). preassembled on rose with metal base, 75.5 x 33 mm, with support spigot diameter 10 mm, concealed screw connection, Distance between fixing holes 43 mm, Stainless steel cover cap (1.4301), Wall thickness 1.5 mm. Integrated impression cylinder with 5 pin tumblers, Can be locked in all locking positions, but release of a 90 degree rotary movement, For opening the window when the window handle is locked, the lock acts directly on the handle and blocks the rotation.

closing differently:

Each locking cylinder requires a separate key, 2 keys are supplied per handle.

keyed alike:

all lock cylinders can be locked with the same key. Surface of window handle and rosette powder-coated deep matt black

Colours / Surfaces

DC (matt black)