

Dimensions in mm

Properties

System 111 panic bar, PVD coated for equipping exit doors - approval to EN 1125 only in combination with tested locks - with CE marking. Approved for fire and smoke control doors as listed in the building authority test certificate of the respective door manufacturer in conjunction with DIN 18273, DIN 4102, DIN 1634, for single or double doorsets in escape routes (inactive or inactive and active leaf).

Handle made of stainless steel tube diameter 25 mm with handle tube made of stainless steel diameter 30 mm. Handle tube as a handle positioned on one side, This enables clear visualisation of the optimum pressure point on the lock side. Connection of the stainless steel tubes by means of a square bar - telescopic. Low projection depending on the operating angle of the lock follower, but at least in accordance with EN 1125, Classification 2:

Awards

Certificates

Colours / Surfaces

	WR (brushed nickel)
	VT (brushed gold)
	SV (brushed bronze)
	RB (brushed copper)

	LP (brushed brass)
---	--------------------